NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION CRUMP LAW CAMP

AN AMAZING OPPORTUNITY TO EXPERIENCE ENTRY INTO THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Entering its 19th year, the National Bar Association (NBA) Crump Law Camp offers high school students a remarkable experience to determine if they desire to pursue careers in law. Named after John Crump because of his many years of service as Executive Director of the NBA, the award winning Law Camp has graduated 760 students from across the country and internationally.

Students are taught civil and criminal law in a law school by actual law professors from Howard University School of Law. They reside in dorms with live in counselors, including lawyers who have more than 10 years' experience with the Law Camp.

The highlight of the Law Camp is the Evett L. Simmons Mock Trial Competition, named after the NBA President under which the Law Camp was established. The Mock Trial allows students to sharpen their communication, persuasion, and public speaking skills. Law Professors are assigned to give special attention to each student to improve his or her trial speaking skills.

In addition to classes at the law school, students receive inspiring lectures and panel discussions from attorneys from Walmart, Microsoft, Greenspoon Marder, LLP, the Groom Law Group, Thompson Reuters, Ford Motor Company, Bar Association of the District of Columbia and others.

The Law Camp in Washington, D.C. has offered educational field trips for the students, including trips to the United States Supreme Court, the Washington D.C. Superior Court, the National Museum of African American History and Culture, the Newseum, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. National Monument, and Kings Dominion.

The NBA Crump Law Camp allows the students to develop lasting friendships and has been the incubator for many who are lawyers today. The motto of the Law Camp is "Growing Lawyers-Building Character." Your decision to participate in this Law Camp is a character building decision which could be your first step to becoming a protector of justice as an attorney at law.
